

TIPS FOR PLANNING A Destination Wedding FROM AAA TRAVEL AGENCY

To eliminate the stress of planning your big day, coordinate your Destination Wedding through one of the highly qualified Destination Wedding Specialists at AAA Travel Agency.

- When selecting a destination, check with the country's tourism board or consulate for all legal wedding requirements, including paperwork.
- Find out how many witnesses are required and how early they need to arrive before the ceremony.
- Consider flying first-class, upgrading your room to a suite, or selecting a hotel that caters to destination weddings.
- Go for the all-inclusive wedding/honeymoon package that includes accommodations, food, beverages and amenities.
- Check to see whether your resort is family-friendly or adults-only, as that may impact your guest list.
- Attention brides! Your passport is issued in your maiden name, so make sure the information on your air and hotel reservations matches your passport.
- As soon as you book your destination wedding, send your guests a save-the-date reminder, plus your booking information, so they're able to come to AAA and take advantage of special offers available to them.
- Let your guests contribute to your trip by having our agents create a registry at AAA. Friends, family and guests will have the opportunity to put money down on your booking as a gift.
- When planning your wedding wardrobe, consider the climate and airline baggage requirements.
- Try and visit your chosen destination before your wedding to meet your wedding coordinator and make sure your big day is exactly the way you want it.
- It's a good idea to arrive at your destination a few days before the wedding ceremony to double check on everything you have planned for the big day.
- Take advantage of exclusive discount offers from AAA's many Preferred Partners for your destination wedding and honeymoon. Also, consider a thrilling and memorable out-of-town bachelor or bachelorette party for your guests.
- Make time for just the two of you. Plan for fun activities both before and after the wedding, such as sightseeing, massages, day trips and more.

For the AAA Travel Consultant nearest you, visit AAA.com/TravelAgent.