IT'S ALL ABOUT THE BANDS.

Chuck Prophet & Mission Express: A WMNF favorite live artist for 17 years, Chuck brings to life a vivid parade of razor-edged one-liners camouflaged in a slack-jawed drawl and songs about heartbreak and everyman heroism, drenched in the twisted lines of rude Telecaster.

The Bright Light Social Hour: The band from Austin has gained attention with their incendiary live performances and innovative vision of rock and roll, melding southern rock, hard-dance, psychedelic blues and deep-soul. Their single "Tear Down That Wall" has received lots of WMNF airplay.

Nikki Hill and Band: Buoyed by her band's roaring boogie that's equal parts Staple Singers and AC/DC, Nikki exudes a self-assured swagger as her fiery rasp preaches the rock & roll gospel. The band tours the globe relentlessly, stunning audiences with their muscular sound.

Sarah Borges & The Broken Singles: Recording and reforming with her old band of many years, The Broken Singles, Sarah Borges is a modern-day retro spitfire, red lipstick curled in a smirk as she summons her six-string to conjure a host of fiery spirits.

Trae Pierce & the T-Stones: The surprise hit band of the 2015 Tropical Heatwave, Trae and his crew delight audiences with their special blend of R&B infused with funk and rock, highlighted by blistering bass riffs, talk box, slide bass and crowd interaction.

Vanessa Collier Band: One of the coolest young artists on the scene today, Vanessa is a captivating and multitalented blues vocalist, saxophonist and songwriter. Sensational at the 2016 Tropical Heatwave, her forthcoming release on RUF is expected to raise her to greater recognition.

Have Gun, Will Travel: A longtime favorite Tampa Bay band, HGWT has a natural instinct for combining folk, pop, rock and classic country influences to create a sound all their own with infectious, sing-along choruses and refrains that incorporate songwriter Matt Burke's interest in history.

Rev. Billy C Wirtz: WMNF listeners know him for his terrific Friday afternoon radio show, "Rev. Billy's Rhythm Revival". Now listen in as he performs a couple of sets of boogie-woogie blues and country live on stage.
